Instructions for Completing Statement of Interest

Please identify sources of income, investments, and other interests that you listed on your Financial Disclosure Statement that are regulated by, do business with or seek to do business with, or are interested in matters pending before, the school district or educational service center you serve in 2024 or served in 2023. This includes any firms or entities in which you are an officer or board member, or have a significant ownership interest.

If none of the sources of income, firms, organizations, or other interests that you listed on your Financial Disclosure Statement are regulated by, do business with or seek to do business with, or are interested in matters pending before, your school district or educational service center, please check the “IF NONE, CHECK HERE” box.

Explanation of Statement of Interest

Division (B) of Section 102.02 of the Revised Code provides that Financial Disclosure Statements filed by school district and ESC superintendents, treasurers, and business managers shall be kept confidential, except that any portion of the statement that indicates a “potential conflict of interest” is subject to public inspection.

The Ohio Ethics Commission is required by R.C. 102.02(B) to review each of these statements to determine whether a “potential conflict of interest” exists. A “potential conflict of interest” exists if the private interests of the person might interfere with the public interests he or she is required to serve in his or her public office or employment. In order to streamline this process and avoid unnecessary correspondence, public officials who file confidential Financial Disclosure Statements are asked to complete a “Statement of Interest,” and identify those interests listed on the Financial Disclosure Statement that might interfere with their public duties.

If the Ethics Commission determines that a “potential conflict of interest” exists, it is required to make that portion of the Financial Disclosure Statement available for public inspection, and notify the public official or employee of the finding. A finding of a “potential conflict of interest” does not mean that the person engaged in any actual conflicts of interest. It means that the public official or employee has some personal, financial or fiduciary interest that has a connection, or link, to his or her public office or employment. The public official or employee should use this finding as a reminder that the interest might, under specific circumstances, create an actual conflict of interest. In such circumstances, the public official or employee may be required to abstain, and should contact the Ohio Ethics Commission or his or her appropriate legal advisor for guidance.

If you have any questions about the “Statement of Interest” or the application of the Ethics Law to you, please contact the Ohio Ethics Commission at (614) 466-7090.

BEFORE FILING YOUR STATEMENT

Do NOT leave any questions for which you are required to answer blank. If you have nothing that you are required to list for any required question, you must check the corresponding box indicating that you have no information that you are required to list.

PURPOSE OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND REQUIREMENT FOR DISCLOSURE

Filing a financial disclosure statement is part of the responsibility of choosing to hold or run for public office or employment. OHIO ETHICS COMMISSION FORM NO. OEC-2023 FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENT INSTRUCTIONS

QUESTION 1—SOURCES OF INCOME:

For more information, check out FAQs on Income

“Income” includes:

1. “Gross income” as defined in the federal Internal Revenue Code (26 USC 61); and
2. Interest and dividends on all governmental securities, whether federal, state, or local.

Examples of “gross income” include compensation for services (such as salary), interest, rent, and pensions.

Most filers* must list every source of income, regardless of amount, that: (a) they received in 2023; or (b) any other person received in 2023 for their use or benefit. Following each source of income, briefly describe the services you provided in return for the income.

Another person has received income for your “use or benefit” if the source’s purpose for giving compensation to that person is to provide it for your use or for your benefit. For example, if you are a beneficiary of a trust, the trust earns income for your use or benefit. You must list the trust as a source of income and all sources of income received by the trust. For more information about trust disclosure, see Advisory Opinion No. 2005-01.

If you are paid for your public service, include the public agency as a source of income.

You are not required to disclose:

- A. Your spouse’s income sources (although you may benefit from your spouse’s income, he or she usually does not receive income for the purpose of providing it to you see [Advisory Opinion No. 75-036]); or
- B. The names of clients, patients, or customers of your business or practice (simply disclose the business or practice).

Amount of Income: You must also disclose the amount of income you received from any source, IF:

1. The source is doing or seeking to do business with the public agency you serve; or
2. You earned the income because you provided goods or services to a legislative agent (lobbyist).
[See R.C. 101.70 or contact the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee for a list of registered lobbyists.]

EXAMPLES:

Source of Income	Service Provided	Amount* (if required)
A Your Employer(s)	Your position(s)
B Smith & Jones Co., L.P.A.	Private law practice
C Your Pension Fund	Retirement
D XYZ Corporation	Stock dividends
E Friendly National Bank	Interest on savings account	$45.00

 Because this bank is a depository for the filer’s public agency, the amount must also be disclosed.

* NOTE: These filers disclose only sources of income over $500 and are not required to disclose amounts of income:

- College or university trustees;
- Any official or employee of a city, school district, ESC, or sanitary district if his or her public position is paid less than $16,000;
- Any candidate for an elective office of a city, school district, or ESC if the office is paid less than $16,000; and
- JobsOhio board members and employees.

For more information, please visit ethics.ohio.gov or call (614) 466-7090.

QUESTION 2—SOURCES OF GIFTS:

For more information, check out FAQs on Gifts

Most filers* list every source of a single gift valued at over $75 or multiple gifts with a total value of over $75 that:

- A. You personally received in 2023; and
- B. Any other person received for your use or benefit in 2023.

Another person has received a gift for your “use or benefit” if the giver’s purpose for giving a gift to that person is to provide it for your use or for your benefit. For example, if your spouse has received a gift and the giver’s purpose is to provide the gift to you, your spouse received the gift for your use or benefit. See Advisory Opinion No. 2009-01

Sources of gifts can include individuals, corporations, or groups of individuals or corporations, such as co-workers, not-for-profit organizations, and trade associations.

You are not required to disclose:

- A. The nature of the gift;
- B. Campaign contributions;
- C. Gifts received by will or inheritance or by distribution from a trust established by a spouse or ancestor;
- D. Gifts received from any of these family members: spouse, parents, grandparents, children, grandchildren, siblings, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, brothers- or sisters-in-law, sons- or daughters-in-law, or parents-in-law; or
- E. Gifts from any person to whom you stand in the place of a parent.

 NOTE: These filers disclose only sources of gifts valued at over $500:

- College or university trustees;
- Any official or employee of a city, school district, ESC, or sanitary district if his or her public position is paid less than $16,000;
- Any candidate for an elective office of a city, school district, or ESC if the office is paid less than $16,000; and

OHIO ETHICS COMMISSION POST FILING NOTIFICATION & REMINDERS

LEAVING YOUR POSITION OR OFFICE IN 2024?

If you have left, or will be leaving, your public position or office at any time during 2024, please read the following reminders to be sure you are aware of any further personal financial disclosure or any applicable post employment disclosure requirements you may have to meet as a result of your public service.

Reminder to all filers who leave their positions or offices in 2024:

The Ohio Ethics Commission would like to remind you that in addition to filing this calendar year 2023 statement, you will also be required to file a financial disclosure statement for calendar year 2024 by Thursday, May 15, 2025 (the year after you have left service). This applies if you served for any length of time in 2024, even if it was for just a single day, or in the case of elected or appointed officials, even if your term expired on January 1, 2024.

Reminder to any state elected officer or employee who leaves public service in 2024:

Ohio's Post Employment Disclosure Law

In addition to filing a financial disclosure statement in 2025 for your final calendar year of public service, Ohio law also requires every state elected officer or employee who filed a financial disclosure statement to disclose their subsequent place of employment to the Joint Legislative Ethics Committee (JLEC) for 24 months after leaving public service. This disclosure is commonly referred to as post employment disclosure (PED) and is part of Ohio's PED Law which can be found in R.C. 102.021.

Only those financial disclosure statement filers that are leaving state service need to complete a PED. The Initial PED Statement is to be completed by departing employees and submitted to the JLEC by their public agency not later than an employee's last day of employment.

PED is separate and distinct from any financial disclosure filing requirement. Filing a PED Statement does not replace any duty to file a personal financial disclosure statement for the former employee's or official's final calendar year of public service.

Please Note: PED does NOT apply to county, city, or other local level financial disclosure filers.

For more information regarding PED, for any specific questions regarding PED, or to obtain a PED Statement to complete please visit the JLEC web site at <http://www.jlec-olig.state.oh.us> or call the JLEC at (614) 728-5100.
